IBM Announces EMEA Geography Winners of the 2024 IBM Partner Plus Awards

London, UK, March 26, 2024 – Today, IBM (NYSE: IBM) announced the EMEA geography winners of the 2024 IBM Partner Plus Awards, which celebrate IBM partners who advance businesses, reshape industries and create positive impact through partnership.

David Stokes, General Manager Ecosystem, IBM EMEA said: "We are thrilled with the number of incredible stories that were submitted from EMEA partners who continue to demonstrate innovative ways to help clients capitalize on the game-changing potential of hybrid cloud and AI. The winners in each category showcase how working together to build, service and sell with IBM technology can deliver tangible results and drive transformative change for clients."

The EMEA geography winners of this regional round in the IBM Partner Plus Awards for each category include:

AI for Business in EMEA – Reinventing the way business gets done.

Agile Business Process UK Limited

Modernization in EMEA – Unlocking innovation through infrastructure.

any.cloud A/S

Digital Defense in EMEA – Building more secure businesses.

SmarterProcess

Automation in EMEA – Increasing performance through automation.

HABBER TEC SL

Digital Labor in EMEA – Unlocking the power of data.

Visito AS

Sustainability in EMEA – Turning sustainability ambition into action.

ERNST & YOUNG LLP

The EMEA geography winners have also been named as finalists for the global awards in each category, winners of which will be announced at IBM Partner Plus Day during Think 2024 on May 20, 2024.

Partners self-nominated for the IBM Partner Plus Awards and entries were judged on Expertise, Partnership, Impact, and Innovation. Winners were selected across six categories in five geographies: APAC, EMEA, Japan, Latin America and North America.
